THE ITATA IS SAFE.

Reports That She Was Sunk By the Charleston Denied.

TWO SHIPS SUNK AT GIBRALTAR.

A Panic Caused by the Wreck but no Lives Are Lost—The Boats Sunk by a Collision—The Blame for the Affair Not Yet Fixed.

CITY OF MEXICO, May 14.—The Anglo-American publishes rumors of the sinking of the Itata by the United States cruiser Charleston, but gives neither time nor place. The authorities here say they have no information whatever concerning the matter, and but little belief is placed in the story. The government has given strict orders to the port authorities on the Pacific coast to report the appearance of any Chilean or other warships. It will be difficult to get news, as the government wires have to be relied on altogether. The general opinion here is that the Itata and her convicts will double up on the Charleston. The government has ordered the gunboat Democrita to keep a sharp lookout for the vessels.

WASHINGTON, May 14.(Special).—The state department says there is no foundation for the rumor that the Chilean insurgent vessel Itata has been sunk by the Charleston.

WILL LET SEALS ALONE Uncle Sam and John Bull Thought to Have Reached an Agreement.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 14.—[Special]—This was the day fixed for the departure of the United States Steamer Rush, for the seal islands of Alaska, but orders arrived later recinding the former order, and the vessel will be kept here. This looks as if the United States and England had agreed not to catch any seals this season.

TWO BIG BOATS SUNK. Panic in the Bay of Gibraltar Caused by a Wreck.

GIBRALTAR, May 14.—[Special].—A terrible panic on board British vessel Bucanero and the Italian Sturia was caused by a collision off here today. Both vessels were wrecked, but all the passengers were rescued.

A BLAST COST $80,000. Many Lives Imperiled on the West Shore Railroad.

NEW YORK, May 14.—(Special).—A premature explosion on the West Shore road near Weehawken, cost eighty thousand dollars, and imperiled many lives on the Pacific Express this morning. The track was terribly torn up.

A COAL FAMINE.

Iowa Dealers Unable, Because of the Strike, to Fill Orders.

MASON CITY, Ia., May 14.—The strike among the coal miners of the state is beginning to assume a very serious aspect. The northern west will be the first to suffer, and already telegrams are coming in from western towns asking to have their orders filled with any kind of coal, but the wholesale dealers are unable to do so. But one mine is in operation in the state, that is at Oskaloosa, and altogether 10,850 men have gone out on strike. Coal can be secured from only one point in Illinois. The supply of coal for manufacturing purposes cannot last over a week longer and then factories, electric light plants, mills, etc., will have to resort to the use of other fuel. The latest advice from owners of mines is that there is no probability of an immediate settlement.

GREAT BEND, Kan., May 14.—Three weeks ago O. R. Wilson, real estate abstractor, ex-mayor of this city and a man of high standing in masonic and Knights of Pythias circles, disappeared. It has just been discovered that Wilson is an embezzler and a defaulter in the amount of at least $40,000.

HEARST SELLS HIS HORSES.

The Young Millionaire Gives Up His Entire Racing Stable.

NEW YORK, May 14.—[Special].—William R. Hearst, son of the late Senator Hearst, will sell his stables this afternoon. This is a surprise to racing men, as it was expected that Mr. Hearst would continue to run the stable. Among the best horses to be sold are Tournament and Yosemite. Tournament was the champion of his class last season, and will doubtless bring a high price. He has been held at $60,000, but will hardly bring that price at auction. All the horses to be sold are in training.

SCOTCH-IRISH IN SEASON.

The Race Convention Begun in Louisville, Kentucky To-day.

LOUISVILLE, KY., May 14.—[Special].—The third annual congress of the Scotch-Irish people of America began in this city this morning. Geo. Buckner delivered the address of welcome. Other speakers were Congressman Breckenridge, Judge Sindoy, Alexander Montgomery and Editor Watterson. The Scotch-Irish society of America, with Robert Donner of New York as president, has charge of the exercises but it is not strictly a society gathering. It can more properly be called a "mass meeting of the race."

JEWS PUT TO SLAUGHTER.

Pierre Anti-Hebrew Riots on the Island of Corfu—Two Men Killed and Many Seriously Hurt—Troops Dispatched from Athens to Restore Order.

CORFU, May 14.—The anti-Hebrew excitement which has existed here for some time past, and which caused an outbreak April 27, when the body of a child who had been murdered was found in the Hebrew quarter, is becoming more venomous. The Greeks then claimed that the Hebrews had murdered a Christian girl for the Feast of the Passover, and the Hebrews retorted by declaring that the Greeks had murdered her as an excuse for rioting and plunder. Though the body was eventually identified as that of the child of a prominent Hebrew, the Greeks broke into the Hebrew quarter and built a bonfire in the square, and declared that the Hebrews should be burned. After a number of Hebrews had been beaten and otherwise injured the rioters were dispersed by the troops. The excitement caused by this incident has never died out, and Tuesday rioting was resumed. Two Hebrews were killed and a number were injured. Troops again dispersed the rioters and now surround the Hebrew quarter. Hebrews are forbidden to pass outside of the cordon of troops, and all stores kept by Hebrews are closed. The prefect of Corfu has been summoned to Athens in order to explain the situation fully to the government. A detachment of troops under the command of a major has been sent here from Athens to restore order. The desperate condition of the Jews of Corfu and Zante is the result of hunger and illness and the impossibility of obtaining physicians. Further mob violence is daily feared. Six thousand Hebrews would gladly leave the islands if provided with the means.

ILLINOIS MINERS.

Proceedings of the Convention at Streator—Last Year's Prices to Rule.

STREATOR, Ill., May 14.—The state convention of the United Mine Workers of Illinois adjourned Wednesday afternoon. The proceedings were conducted with closed doors but were characterized by moderation and good feeling. It was resolved to use all honorable means to have a clause inserted in existing contracts with employers giving the mine the benefit of any legislation by the general assembly; to accept last year's prices; to agitate for a nine-hour day; not to resume work for less than last year's prices, and to give united support to strikers when it was necessary to secure said prices; to send delegates to the governor and general assembly to urge the passage of the eight-hour law and a bill providing for courts of arbitration. Conformably to the resolutions the various pit committees will wait on their respective employers and endeavor to have a conditional law inserted in the contracts. In any event the feeling of northern Illinois miners is against a strike at the present time, and work will be resumed, though possibly under protest.

A World's Fair Appropriation of $1,000,000 Recommended to the Senate—June 12 Agreed Upon as the Date for Adjournment.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., May 14.—The senate committee on appropriations has recommended for passage the world's fair bill as prepared by the sub-committee and members of the state agricultural board. An amendment was offered reducing the appropriation from $1,000,000 to $800,000 but failed of adoption by a vote of 9 to 6.

Senator Fuller's mutual savings bank bill, which was the special order in the senate, was passed by the decisive vote of 26 to 9. Senator Lehman's general banking bill was read a third time and passed. The bill appropriating $979,000 for ordinary and contingent expenses of all state and charitable institutions was passed.

After a contest in which the farmers demonstrated their fighting strength the house concurred in the joint senate resolution for a sine die adjournment June 12.

MICHIGAN.

The House Decides That Railroads Must Pay More Taxes.

LANSING, Mich., May 14.—The governor has vetoed the bill giving each of the five judges of the supreme court a stenographer. The senate by a vote of 15 to 14 defeated the bill giving municipal suffrage to women. The house passed the Richardson bill increasing the specific tax paid by the railroads by one-half per cent. This will place nearly $300,000 in additional tax in the state treasury annually. A member of the house of representatives has made charges of bribery against the Michigan Bell Telephone Company.

ALL YARD MEN OUT.

The Northwestern Lock Out Effects The Entire System.

STATUS OF AFFAIRS AT MADISON.

Both There and in Baraboo Idlers are Numerous—In Chicago New Men Are at Work Under Police Protection And No Trouble Is Feared.

CHICAGO, May 14.—[Special].—In anticipation of the threatened strike the Chicago & Northwestern Company, this morning discharged every switchman on its lines. In reorganizing the service the management says that discharged worthy and capable men who so desire, will be given preference.

It is said that the trouble is the outcome of the re-instatement of a switchman obnoxious to the union about whom there has been much controversy. Yardmaster McNeerney, of Chicago, a prominent member of the order of trainmen, is the stumbling block. About six weeks ago McNeerney ordered a car switched over to the Wisconsin Central tracks, but the switchmen informed him, according to their rules, this could not be done. McNeerney discharged three men for disobeying his order. The switchmen thereupon struck, but McNeerney temporarily relieved the company of embarrassment by tendering his resignation. The strikers were jubilant and demanded that Crow, one of the discharged switchmen, be put in McNeerney's place, which was done. Now the trainmen of all divisions have taken up McNeerney's case and nothing can apparently avert a conflict between them and the 1,700 switchmen. It is an unusual fight. Instead of the company being against all the employees, the majority of the employees and the company are working together against the switchmen. The police are on guard and new men are at work.

All Out on This Division.

MADISON, May 14.—[Special].—A ripple in railroad circles was caused here this morning by the discharge of every yardmaster and switchman on Madison division of the Chicago & Northwestern road. Groups of men gathered both here and at Baraboo discussing the situation. The reason for this premonitory action on part of the company cannot be ascertained, but it is supposed to be connected with the switching trouble in Chicago. It is believed the difficulty will be settled in a few days.

TAKE MEAT TRADE ON SHARES.

Traders Considering the Matter in Chicago To-day.

The conference will be held this afternoon and an amicable understanding is expected. Armour and other prominent western shippers have been invited to attend the conference.

Another Heavy Failure.

NEW YORK, May 14.—The firm of A. Levy & Bros., of 619 Broadway, closed their doors Wednesday afternoon. The immediate cause of the suspension of business was the filing of three judgments. The firm's liabilities are about $300,000 and the assets are not known.

Strikers Victorious.

ST. LOUIS, May 14.—The journeymen carpenters held a meeting at Central Turner hall Wednesday, and it was reported that several more bosses had given in. The master builders held a meeting Tuesday, and after an exciting debate a resolution to lock the men out was defeated by a large majority, and another resolution was adopted indorsing the action of a previous meeting to pay 37½ cents an hour, with an amendment that all builders now paying 40 cents could continue to do so. This action is clearly an effort to bring in favor of the strikers. The situation among other striking organizations remains practically unchanged.

Mr. Blaine Must Rest.

NEW YORK, May 14.—The Recorder says it has been learned that the doctor has positively forbidden Mr. Blaine to return to his duties. He said that he must not think of work for two months or work might be an impossibility. Mr. Damrosch says that it is likely that Mr. Blaine will go to Maine for the rest and quiet he so much needs.

HOW SHALL SCHOOLS BE HEATED?

The question of heating and ventilating the new school houses is now under consideration by the board of education. Heretofore the heating of Janesville public school buildings has been a source of endless trouble, not only to the members of the school board but to pupils and parents as well. Whether this was the result of adopting the cheapest apparatus in the market is not definitely known. The board have had much experience with cheap furnaces and ventilating flues, and have finally determined that they will now have nothing but the best for the new buildings. Steam heat was put in the second ward building and so far it has given very general satisfaction. Similar apparatus which was put in the high school last winter proved very satisfactory. These have influenced the board to adopt similar apparatus for the new buildings. The board, in the absence of a system of sewerage, however, feel compelled to adopt the Rutland system of dry air closets. This again raises the question of steam versus furnaces, and the matter will occupy the attention of the board of school commissioners on Monday evening. The people will uphold the members of the board in adopting the best in the market, leaving the cost to be considered afterwards, believing the health and comfort of the pupils should be considered before expense.

There has always been a doubt both in the United States and in Great Britain as to whether these two nations, bound together by so many ties of kinship and of common interest, were entitled to describe one another as foreign. An English court of law has, however, just issued a decree which definitely settles this much disputed question. A lady who was left a legacy of $20,000, on the condition that she would marry neither a foreigner nor any one of the name of Smith, chose to wed an American, defending herself by the plea that Americans were not included in that category. Her defense was overruled by the English court of probate, and it is decided once and for all that Americans are foreigners.

Two notable changes are announced for the coming summer in connection with European seaports. On the first day of July next both Trieste and Fiume lose their time honored privileges as free ports and are brought under control of the Imperial and Royal customs authorities. Within a few weeks afterward Copenhagen, the capital of Denmark, will be officially proclaimed as a free port, the object in view being to attract and retain the trade which would otherwise be diverted by the opening of the North Sea Canal. The conversion of Copenhagen into a free port is viewed with marked disfavor at Berlin, where it is regarded as due to the hostile influence of the czar.

The treasury department is having a larger demand than was expected for the new fractional silver, mostly from banks in the New England and middle states. The coinage at present is confined to dimes, and these are in greatest demand. The new 25 cent pieces will be of different design from those now in circulation, and it may be some little time before they appear. Treasury officials believe there will be put in circulation not less than $5,000,000 of the fractional silver now lying in the treasury.

The official legislative and erudite minds in Massachusetts have wrestled with two great problems of late. The first is whether the drunk will come soonest standing or sitting; and the other, how to get rid of the gypsy moth. The moth makes trouble with some of the farm products. The plan apparently adopted is to introduce the Japanese fly, said to be a devouring enemy of the moth. It may prove a greater nuisance than the moth, as in the case of the English sparrow.

Some of the American tourists in Italy report annoyance from loafers in the cities, growing out of late well known transactions. It would be a terrible thing for the beggars, hotel men, the vendors of bogus relics, and various other classes if the Americans should not stop in that country. About $30,000,000 a year would be missing in Italian pockets.

Michael Davitt and wife are now crossing the Atlantic from Queenstown to New York on board the Auranian. Mr. Davitt will go to California, after a short stay in Winnipeg and in several places in Idaho.

It is pleasing to observe that the cost of living was never before so low as it is to-day. But why are the people keeping so quiet up on the subject that is particularly interesting to the American people?

The Republicans were generally successful in the recent elections in Spain.

SOME WELL KNOWN FACES.

A Silver Tongued Orator.

Daniel Dougherty has long been famous as a Philadelphia orator and lawyer, and is now of national fame. His eyes are "Irish blue," and his features correspond with them, so it is only natural that he should show a Celtic fluency in speech. He ranks among the foremost lawyers in the United States.

TO AID THE NEEDY.

Charities and Corrections Conference At Indianapolis, Ind.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., May 14.—The hotels are overcrowded with delegates to the eighteenth national conference of charities and corrections, comprising members of boards of state charities, superintendents and trustees of benevolent associations, directors and officers of charitable institutions and wardens and directors of prisons and reformatories. The sessions, which began Wednesday night, of the conference will occupy one week, and are held in Plymouth church. Among the prominent speakers will be Gov. Hovey, of this state; Gov. Campbell, of Ohio, and James Whitcomb Riley. The conference from a state beginning has grown in influence and the number of its delegates until it is now one of the most important national conferences of the country and exerts a great influence in the promotion of social reforms. Its object is to collect, compare and diffuse information respecting every description of charitable, penal and reformatory enterprises, both public and private, while the delegates are earnest and practical men and women, some actively engaged in such work and others who, while occupying no official station, are interested as philanthropists and good citizens. The conference is presided over by Oscar F. McCulloch, of Indianapolis, and the secretaries are Lucius C. Storrs, Lansing, Mich.; H. H. Hart, St. Paul; Mr. Welch, Denver; Mrs. Woodford, Nashville; Miss Ellen H. Bailey, Boston, and Alexander Johnson, Indianapolis.

At the opening session Wednesday night the delegates were welcomed to the state and city by Gov. Hovey, Mayor Sullivan and Hon. William P. Fishback. Gov. Campbell, of Ohio, was expected to make the principal response for the delegates, but at a late hour telegraphed his inability to be present, and in his absence responses were made by Miss Clara Barton, of Washington; F. S. Sanborn, of Boston, and Col. John Glenn, of Baltimore. Following the address of welcome and the responses of the president of the conference Rev. Oscar McCulloch, of this city, made his annual address on "Registration of the Dependent, Defective and Delinquent Classes." The exercises concluded with a character study by the Hoosier poet, James Whitcomb Riley—"An Incident of the Insane Asylum."

Sunday ministers from among the delegates will occupy all the city pulpits, and in the evening public meetings will be held in the theaters and public halls. At the conclusion of the conference those of the delegates so desiring will be taken on a tour of inspection of the natural-gas belt and the various penal and eleemosynary institutions of the state.

THE KENTUCKY DERBY.

It Is Won by Kingman in the Slow Time of 2:52 1/4.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 14.—The seventeenth Kentucky derby was won Wednesday afternoon at Churchill Downs in the presence of 25,000 people. There were four starters, as follows: Kingman, Hart Wallace, Balgown and High Tariff. Kingman's great race at Lexington entitled him to first call in the betting, and it was a long shot, but he laid odds of $200 to $500 on the winner. Balgown was second choice at 5 to 2, with 8 and 10 to 1 obtainable against Hart Wallace and High Tariff. Isaac Murphy rode Kingman, and sent the horse in a winner by an open margin. Balgown was second, High Tariff third and Hart Wallace last. The time was 2:52 1/4. The distance was the regular derby route—1 1/2 miles—and every horse carried 122 pounds. Spoken's time with Proctor Knott in the 1880 derby was 2:54 1/4. There was but little enthusiasm at the result, for the others seemed outclassed by Kingman. The pecuniary value of this year's derby is about $4,700.

It Should Be In Every House

J. B. Wilson, 371 Clay St., Sharpsburg, Pa., says he will not be without Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, that it cured his wife who was threatened with pneumonia after an attack of "La Grippe," when various other remedies and several physicians had done her no good. Robert Barber, of Cooksport, Pa., claims Dr. King's New Discovery has done him more good than anything he ever used for Lung Trouble. Nothing like it. Try it. Free trial bottles at F. ## FIRE'S AWFUL WORK.

Many Michigan Villages Walled in by Flames.

A NUMBER OF THEM DESTROYED.

The Lumber Districts Devastated and Millions of Feet Have Been Consumed—The Losses Will Exceed $2,000,000.

MICHIGAN'S MISFORTUNE.

Big Rapids, Mich., May 14.—Fire fights fire in Michigan. At least that has been the case for nearly a week, and a grim battle it has been. Small settlements have been swept off the map and good sized towns have only been saved by the walls of brush burned around them. The immense forests of pine and hemlock that cover the lower peninsula are ablaze and there is now a barrier of flames and smoke from Manistee to Huron. The fire is the biggest that has attacked the forests since the one of 1881, which destroyed millions of dollars' worth of property and many lives. It is the first great spring visitation of fire that the state has ever known. Hitherto the fires have come in the fall, when the leaves were dry and there was much brush burning, and they have varied in intensity with the conditions of the weather. Spring fires have been of rare occurrence and have done little damage. The destructiveness of the present attack is caused by the peculiar dryness of the season. There has not been a good rainfall since early in March and the forests are as dry as flint.

Last Saturday the fire reached its greatest fury in this section, when it was reckoned a mile of standing timber an hour was the least measure of its destructiveness. It struck the little town of Fields, or Fields' siding, on the Chicago & West Michigan railway, and burned the station, the store and the shanties of the lumbermen's families. It burned Kinney's, another lumberman's settlement, and also destroyed the Kinney sawmill near Woodville. Dingham post office, or Otis, as it was formerly called, in Newaygo county, was a third victim, and a number of little places unnamed on the map, caught from the sparks and were quickly swept away. Wednesday it was reported that Alton, a little town in the lower end of Mecosta county, had been burned and stories are thick of the unpleasant position of a number of northern settlements which are hemmed in by the fire lines.

The places mentioned above are the only settlements wholly destroyed in this lumbering section, but many others were in peril at one time. Baldwin, in Lake county, was badly scared after a hard fight, and houses were burned in Nirvana, near by. The people of White Cloud, an important junction town of Newaygo county, had a hand to hand fight with the fire no longer ago than Tuesday night. The town is surrounded with hemlock and pine forests and here and there a cedar swamp. Saturday or Sunday these were swept into the train of the crushing flames and for hours White Cloud lay in the center of a circle of flames. The smoke was so dense over the town that men in the streets were unable to see half a block ahead of them at noon and lamps were lighted in the houses. Every man, woman and boy had a bucket in hand and the town was divided into buckets. The town was divided into buckets. The town was divided into buckets.

The Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway will sell round trip excursion tickets to La Crosse at $5.19 on May 17, 18, 19, 20 and 21, good to return until May 23. For beautiful scenery and daylight ride take the 9:30 morning train.

ONE HUNDRED VICTIMS.
AUSTIN, Pa., May 14.—It is now believed that the number of lives lost and persons seriously injured by the late forest fires in this district will be over 100. It will be at least a week before a full list of those killed in the train accident can be made out. None of the bodies have been recovered save that of Superintendent Badger.

RECORDED BY THE CHIEF.
The Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway will sell round trip excursion tickets to La Crosse at $5.19 on May 17, 18, 19, 20 and 21, good to return until May 23. For beautiful scenery and daylight ride take the 9:30 morning train.

THE CHIEF.

While the fire is burning estimates of the loss in detail will be hard to get. A lumber dealer of this town put the damage through the state to standing timber and dressed wood at more than $2,000,000.

000,000 thus far, and the assertion was ventured that it would double that sum if unchecked. In the places visited the loss is figured in detail as follows: Newaygo county, $100,000; Mecosta county, $50,000; Lake county, $75,000; Oseola county, $50,000; Oceana county, $30,000; total for five counties, $305,000. This is the estimate of a man who has spent a great many years in this section, and it is conservative. If it is nearly accurate and the counties in which most of the good pine have been taken out are damaged over a quarter of a million, the loss of the upper tiers where there are vast acres of unbroken forest waiting the ax will far exceed $2,000,000.

BALDWIN, Mich., May 14.—All the towns along the line of the Frankfort & Southeastern railroad are still in danger from the fires. West of Manistee junction the fires are out, but many farm-houses and logging camps have been destroyed. Hundreds of people are homeless, and without any clothes save those on their backs.

LOSSES IN WISCONSIN.
WEST SUPERIOR, Wis., May 14.—Fires have moved a pathway from the St. Louis river to the south shore of Lake Superior and extending over a territory from 2 to 30 miles in width. The damage to property cannot be estimated at this time, as the bulk of this loss will rest in standing pine destroyed and logs already cut and ready for the saw. At present the greatest damage is reported from along the line of the Omaha railroad, on both sides of which and extending to Lake Superior on the north the fire is still raging fiercely. Late Tuesday night a report reached the city that S. M. Stocking's camps near the Brule river and 2,000,000 worth of logs had been burned. Mr. Stocking says that from all he can learn the damage in the timbered districts east of Superior has been very heavy. Over 100 square miles of virgin forest have been utterly destroyed, and the head of one logging firm puts the losses at $1,500,000 in standing timber.

EAU CLAIRE, Wis., May 14.—Brisk fires are running through the timber northwest and east of here, filling the city and country side with smoke and keeping farmers and people generally on the lookout. Large tracts of choice timber are being destroyed and many farmers' houses threatened.

SWITCH WAR BEGUN.

Every Yard Man on the C. & N. W. Discharged This Morning.

WHAT THE ACTION WILL BRING ON.

Members of the Local Union March in a Body to Their Hall and Confer Upon the Case—New Men Put at Work Immediately.

All Chicago & Northwestern switchmen were discharged this morning from one end of the system to the other. Trainmaster Moulton informed the Janesville force this morning, that their services were no longer needed and that they could consider themselves discharged. Yard masters and the entire switching force were included. Day yardmaster, David Griffin, was immediately reemployed and went back to work. A force of men were at once set at work under him in the south end of the yard and B. H. Baldwin took care of the north end engine. The wholesale discharge of the men was pursuant to an order from the general manager of the road. In Chicago and all along the line new men have been hired and assisted by the yardmen are doing the work in the trains.

"It is simply this," said Trainmaster Moulton this morning. "These men have been giving poor satisfaction for a long time. Shippers have been dissatisfied and the step was the only thing left for us to do. I have a force of men at all the stations in my territory, and am having no trouble whatever getting trains out of the way; neither do I expect any. Such of the discharged switchmen who are willing to work as the company want them to, can come back, but there are some who will not employ again. I have nothing against the union, and will hire a union man as quick as anyone else, provided he is a good man and is willing to work for the Northwestern Company as they want him to."

"The move is general, and concerns the whole Chicago & Northwestern system. Immediately after the men were discharged a meeting of the switchmen union was called, and the men marched down town to consider the matter.

No action was taken at the meeting, however, and the men are now waiting for orders from the Grand Master at Chicago.

"I was as much surprised as anyone," said Will Keating, one of the former switchmen. "I had a long fight of course, but was just ready to end them off when I was called into the office. We all got our checks and were told that we were not wanted longer. I do not know what the trouble was; I have no more idea than you have."

J. S. BLISS BURIED IN DEERFIELD. The Well Known Bureau Organizer Succumbs to Infirmities of Age.

Many Janesville people will read with regret the news of the death of John S. Bliss, which took place at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Charles A. Bailey, in New York city, May 9. Mr. Bliss resided in Janesville for many years, he conducting the Northwestern Lecture Bureau. He was a leading temperance advocate. During his residence in this city he visited Europe where he spent a season. Finally failing health compelled him to give up all study and work, and he went to New York to reside with his daughter. Mr. Bliss was born in Rochester, New York, January 3, 1832; when a lad his parents removed to Wisconsin, settling on Liberty Prairie, near Deerfield, Dane County. In accordance with his expressed wish his remains were brought back to Deerfield and laid to rest in the family lot in the village cemetery. He was a member of the order of Odd Fellows, attached to Janesville Lodge 90, and holding membership in that lodge at the time of his death.

THEY ARE WALKING HOME.

Janesville Boys Who Went to Superior Are Very Hungry.

Several days ago a party of Janesville boys formed a syndicate for the purpose of speculating in Superior real estate. They appointed a committee which included all the stockholders, to visit Superior and lay plans according to their convictions. They all went north in detachments. All have been heard from, Alderman McLean receiving the following written on a postal card, this morning:

"GOOD FRIEND JAMIE—Please open up a new set of books as we are coming home to eat, and thought we would give you due notice. We don't know how long it will take, but think we can walk fifteen miles per day.

JAMES OWEN O'CONNOR KENMITH, OSCAR KENNETH JERG, ELMER REUBEN SKEELY."

THEY CAN'T SKIP DRILL.

Captain Glass Considering the Eau Claire Method of Discipline.

Captain Glass has been troubled considerably by members of the Light Infantry dodging drills. He now thinks of trying the plan adopted in Eau Claire. Late Tuesday night Captain Bradley, of that city, marched a squad of men to the residence of Judge Bartlett, a prominent citizen, where a rehearsal for an amateur opera was going on. The Captain drew up his men in front of the house and demanded that all guardsmen come out. They slid out through the back door and were arrested and marched to the armory, some placed in the ranks for drill. The rest escaped. A court martial is looked for.

ONESUIT A MINUTE.

Measuring the Members of the Light Infantry for Uniforms.

A representative of the Pettibone Manufacturing Company took measurements for fifty-two new uniforms for the Light Infantry last night. He measured the men at the rate of one a minute, and the way he went through the company discounted a Gatling gun. The new suits will consist of fatigue coats, trousers and caps. They are furnished at the expense of the state. It was hoped that the uniforms would be ready for use by May 30, but it is not probable that they will reach here much before July.

IMPRESSIVE SERVICES HELD TO-DAY.

Rev. C. F. Knight, Bishop of the Diocese, Conducted the Service that Installed the Rector in His New Charge.

Many Rectors Present.

Rev. Arthur H. Barrington was installed as rector of the Christ church this morning, with impressive services. Outside the chancel rail at 10 o'clock stood the rector-elect. Representing the wardens of the church were William Ruger and R. H. Eldredge, and as they stood under the chancel arch Bishop Knight announced the purpose for which they had assembled—the installation of the Rev. Mr. Barrington as the rector of Christ church. The wardens, as represented by Mr. Ruger and Mr. Eldredge turned over the keys of the church and then followed the bishop's sermon. Bishop Knight took his text: "Behold I Am With You Always, Even Unto the End of the World." He pictured the three orders of ministry, and the church delivered a feeding address to the newly installed rector. The bishop reminded the people that they were to congratulate the new rector, and wish him God speed; and set an example which was followed by a season of good cheer. Congregation and clergy pressed forward and congratulated the new rector.

In the Holy Communion the newly installed rector acted as celebrant, assisted by Dr. Royce, dean of the convention, as gospeler, and Dr. Riley as epistler.

Horace McKelroy examined the bulb very critically this morning, and had no hesitation in pronouncing it very closely related to Deacon Monroe's musk-geranium, which had quite a boom a few years ago.

GAVE HIM THE KEYS.

Rev. A. H. Barrington Now Christ Church's Rector.

IMPRESSIVE SERVICES HELD TO-DAY.

Rev. C. F. Knight, Bishop of the Diocese, Conducted the Service that Installed the Rector in His New Charge.

Many Rectors Present.

Rev. Arthur H. Barrington was installed as rector of the Christ church this morning, with impressive services.

Outside the chancel rail at 10 o'clock stood the rector-elect. Representing the wardens of the church were William Ruger and R. H. Eldredge, and as they stood under the chancel arch Bishop Knight announced the purpose for which they had assembled—the installation of the Rev. Mr. Barrington as the rector of Christ church. The wardens, as represented by Mr. Ruger and Mr. Eldredge turned over the keys of the church and then followed the bishop's sermon. Bishop Knight took his text: "Behold I Am With You Always, Even Unto the End of the World." He pictured the three orders of ministry, and the church delivered a feeding address to the newly installed rector. The bishop reminded the people that they were to congratulate the new rector, and wish him God speed; and set an example which was followed by a season of good cheer. Congregation and clergy pressed forward and congratulated the new rector.

CRANE HAS A LEMON LILY.

But Commissioner McKelroy Says It Is a Musk Geranium.

George Crane, Walter Helm's right hand man, is quite an expert propagator of plants and buds. Scarcely a day passes that he fails to bring forth a new variety. He bids fair to realize a colossal fortune in the near future, in fact he is certain of the fortune if he realizes the prices he sets on his new productions. His latest bud, which he brought out this morning, is named "the lemon lily," and it is offered for five dollars. Horace McKelroy examined the bulb very critically this morning, and had no hesitation in pronouncing it very closely related to Deacon Monroe's musk-geranium, which had quite a boom a few years ago.

DOE IN PLAIN GARB.

He Has Discarded Uniform Except On Formal Occasions.

CAPTAIN LEWIS JEERED AT HIM.

He Claims to Have Said Unpleasant Things About Brass Buttons and Tin Soldiers and to Have Caused Regiments to Fall Into Disfavor.

Adjutant-General Doe does not wear his uniform except on formal military occasions. Captain Hugh Lewis claims to be responsible for the change.

When General Doe went into office he took up his new work with zeal and enthusiasm, neglecting nothing that would gain recognition for the militia. It was with this in view that he inaugurated the custom of wearing the insignia of his rank, army cape, coat, fatigue cap and all, with every day dress. Recently Captain Lewis, who is one of the messengers from Wisconsin in the United States House of representatives, had some difficulty with the department of the adjutant-general at the state capital. Persons in the office had it in for Hugh and because General Doe would not drop their heads in the basket Hugh got in for the adjutant-general. Not many weeks ago General Doe and Hugh met in Governor Peck's office, where the former said to the latter that he understood he had been abusing him in public places about town and that he did not propose to stand it.

"Do you mean that as a threat?" inquired Hugh.

"You may take it any way you wish," said General Doe.

Then the ball opened, and it was said that much of what followed would not look well in print. Hugh in his mild statement spoke about tin soldiers and soldier lads, and pretty generally ridiculed the style of dress parade on informal occasions.

"I told him, said Lewis last evening, that it was presumption for him, a mere militia officer, to put on the uniform of a brigadier general and go parading around like a peacock. Even the high-up military officers in Washington don't do that, I told the fellow, and he took the hint and hasn't had his uniform on since. I tell you I can show these military officers something yet."

MORRISON IN "FAUST."

Lewis Morrison's production of "Faust" at the Myer's scored the hit so confidently predicted. Advance notices represented the performance as exceeding in splendor and general effectiveness Henry Irving's well-known presentation of the play.

Fortified by the knowledge of the excellence of the entertainment—its utter freedom from even a suggestion of the mediocrity or unworthiness of conception or detail—Lewis Morrison has rather courted comparison with Irving's presentation than avoided it.

In spite of the liberal praises that had been bestowed on the excellence of the scenic accessories of the piece, admiration was evoked by the unique electrical effects, and wonderfully ingenious mechanical devices. The scenery was very fine, especially that of the act with gathering in the Brecken, with its rains of fire and its weird and grim effects.

The cast was generally effective, yet seemed to be much less so because their efforts were dwarfed by the superb impersonation of his satanic majesty by Mr. Morrison. Mr. Morrison enacted the Prince of Darkness with power and intelligence, and with keen appreciation of the humorous aspects of the character. Nothing was overdone, and storms of applause showed that his work was appreciated. Miss Roberts as Marguerite was admirable for her simplicity and grace and Janesville people will be glad to know that they will have an opportunity to see her and Mr. Morrison in the same parts again next year.
